

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE UNITED STATES
FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF NORTH CAROLINA
CHARLOTTE DIVISION
3:05cr390

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA)
 vs.)
 CHARLES LAMAR BULLARD (2))
 _____)

ORDER

THIS MATTER is before the Court on its own motion. The Court previously granted co-defendants' motions to continue the trial of this matter which had been scheduled for the February 6, 2006, trial term in the Charlotte Division. (Doc. No. 111: Order).

Since that time, the defendant has been arraigned and set for trial during the February 6, 2006, term.

The Court finds that the defendant's case is "joined for trial with a co-defendant as to whom the time for trial has not run and no motion for severance has been granted," 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7), and that failure to continue this matter would result in a miscarriage of justice. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(8)(B)(i). The Court further finds that the ends of justice served by taking such action outweigh the best interest of the public and the defendants to a speedy trial.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED, that this case as to all defendants who are pending for trial is hereby continued to the April 3, 2006 trial term of Court in the Charlotte Division.

The Clerk is directed to certify copies of this order to the defendant, counsel for the defendant, to the United States Attorney, the United States Marshals service, and the U.S. Probation office.

Signed: January 27, 2006

Robert J. Conrad, Jr.
United States District Judge
